DALE, OWEN L. (Snowball)

Spokane WA

b. 08-10-1927 / d. 01-29-2009

Spokane Valley WA Congregation

Owen L. "Snowball" Dale was born in Oroville, WA, on August 10, 1927, to Walter and Marie Dale and grew up in Eastern Washington. Owen passed away in his daughter's home in Spokane, WA, on January 29, 2009.

He is one of three children, with two sisters Iris Bomastad deceased, and Doris Dickinson of Butler MO. He was married to Rose Butler from 1959-2005 and the father of three children: Walter Dale, Laura Dale, and Scott Dale of Spokane, WA, and has five grandchildren.

Owen is an Army veteran of WWII, Radar Mechanic Bombardment 867, discharged in March 1949. He loved taking care of bees and living in the country with his companion Viannah Walker.

Even though Owen typically didn't have very much, he was a very generous man and offered all that he had to many whom he considered less fortunate. Those who knew him will always remember his eagerness to live life in the peacefulness of the country, no matter how difficult.

A memorial service will be held at the Community of Christ church, 11515 E. Broadway, Spokane Valley, WA, on Saturday, February 21, 2009, at 1:00 p.m. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions are suggested to Community of Christ Church, 11515 E. Broadway, Spokane Valley, WA 99206.

SNUGGINS, OLIN BENJAMIN (O. B.)

Spokane WA

b. 11-04-1876 / d. 04-18-1969

Spokane Valley WA Branch

/ South Hill (Spokane) WA Branch

Olin Benjamin Snuggins was born November 4, 1876 at Argyle, Wisconsin to Olin and Margaret Peterson Snuggins. He was reared near Dows, Iowa and received his education there and at Ellsworth College in Iowa Falls, Iowa. While at Ellsworth College, Olin received voice training that was a source of pleasure to him, and all who knew him, for the rest of his life. His fine tenor voice was heard at weddings, funerals, and social occasions wherever he lived.

Immediately after graduation from Ellsworth College, Olin went to Mohall, North Dakota where he worked a homestead until 1910. At this time he moved to Outlook, Montana. At Culbertson, Montana, O.B. married Allean Anderson. They resided on their homestead farm at Outlook, Montana until 1934.

While at Outlook, O.B. embraced the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. He was a faithful member and an active Elder until the infirmities of his advancing years forced his retirement.

In 1934, O.B. and Allean moved to Clear Lake, Iowa where they resided until about 1949. At this time they moved to Spokane and purchased the family home on Argonne Road. Allean passed away in 1951.

In 1959, O.B. Snuggins and Agnes Volland were united in marriage. This union brought much happiness to O.B. during his remaining years.

In addition to his faithful wife, Agnes, O.B. leaves to mourn: 1 sister, Clara Beach, Thompson, Iowa; 5 step-sons, George Snuggins, Missouri, Andrew Volland, Dokes, North Dakota, Kenneth Volland, Spokane, Washington, Richard and Charles Volland, Kent, Washington; 3 step-daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Triplett, Great Bend, Kansas, Mrs. Margaret Peterson, Kent, Washington, Mrs. Clara Tobias, Spokane, Washington; 9 step-grandchildren; 6 step-great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

O.B. was loved and respected by all who knew him. He was a kind, gentle, loving, devoted Christian who enjoyed telling the gospel story and lived by Christian precepts throughout his life.

O.B. transcended this earth April 18, 1969 at the age of 92 years, 5 months, and 14 days.

An obituary for Olin Benjamin Snuggins of Spokane WA published in the September 1969 edition of the Spokane District "Telegram."
